

Application Form – Public Interest Representative Halton-Hamilton Source Protection Committee

Please complete all areas of this application form for your application to be considered. You may attach additional information if desired.

The role of committee members

The Halton-Hamilton Source Protection Committee guides the development and update of drinking water source protection plans and reports on implementation for the Halton-Hamilton source protection region.

The development of the plan involves municipalities, farmers, businesses, industry, residents and others. The Source Protection Committee's role is to guide the collaborative process that identifies the sources of drinking water, the threats to both water quality and water supplies, develop the programs and policies that will reduce the risks to drinking water sources and report on implementation.

Members of the Source Protection Committee are expected to participate fully and work positively toward solutions.

NOTE: To be eligible to apply to represent the public interest sector on the Halton-Hamilton Source Protection Committee you must:

- reside in, own or rent property within the Halton-Hamilton Source Protection Region; OR
- be employed or operate a business within the Halton-Hamilton Source Protection Region; OR
- be employed by a municipality that is part of the Halton-Hamilton Source Protection Region; AND
- not be a member or employee of a conservation authority within the Halton-Hamilton Source Protection Region.
